Impact of Exchange Rates on Export Revenue

Despite currency fluctuations, Sagist Group maintained stable revenue in USD. Effective hedging strategies and global pricing models minimized risks. Exchange rate volatility was offset by diversified international operations.

Strategic Growth Plan and 2025 Objectives

- Reach $80M+ in annual exports
- Open new regional headquarters in Europe (Switzerland, Austria, or Serbia)
- Expand market share in North America, Gulf Region, and West Africa
- Launch flagship showroom in Accra, Ghana

- Increase digital sales via www.hotelmobilya.com and global e-commerce partnerships

Key Investment Opportunities

- Worldwide Turnkey Projects
- Strong Export Track Record
- Certified by SGS, CIS, and International Institutions
- Preferred by Celebrities, Politicians and Hotel Chains
- Vertical Integration: Design, Production, Transport and Assembly

Investor Highlight: Sagist Group is fully capable of executing international projects with its own teams, ensuring control, quality, and timely delivery.
